On the 4th October, which was a mild autumn evening, the eagerly anticipated League KO Cup Final between Botanic Gardens A & London Hotel took place on the superb Longton VM No.1 Green. Unfortunately, it turned out to be an one affair with Botanic dominating the match with all their players bowling superbly well which the London Hotel lads could not match except in a couple of games. After the first four, Botanic won 3 of the 4 games to hold a 15.5 chalk advantage (including the handicap) thanks to Mike Milne winning his game 21-6. They then increased their lead to a nearly unbeatable advantage of 36.5 chinks by winning the next 4 games. Man of the Match, John Hughes, then clinched his team's victory with a 21-4 win. The League President, Ady Hoyle, congratulated Botanic Gardens A on winning this coveted title for the 2nd time, their last success was eight years ago in 2005, & presented the trophy to John Roberts (Botanic Gardens A captain) in the presence of both teams, league officials & spectators.
